PARISH NEWSLETTER
4th March 2018 – Third Sunday of Lent (B)

My dear friends

The Gospel for today from St. John is sometimes called 'The cleansing of the Temple'. It records an act of violence. Jesus goes into the temple and upsets the money-changers' tables. He drives the cattle and sheep out with a whip, along with the people who sold them. Away with the caged pigeons. This is the only violent act of Jesus recorded in the Gospels. With our modern sensibilities it seems shocking that the Prince of Peace is violent, even if only once. The authorities asked 'What sign can you show us?' To which Jesus answers 'Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up,' Jesus says. The temple authorities think that he is talking of the physical building, and indeed for forty-six years the restoration work had been going on, started during the lifetime of King Herod. But Jesus is thinking of his own body, in which he rose from the dead on the third day. Through baptism we have become part of the body of Jesus. Therefore the true temple of God is not any building, however beautiful, however ancient, however long and expensive it has been to build. No, the true temple of God is God's holy people, baptised into his death, redeemed by his precious blood. You are God's holy temple. This Lent then, let us allow Jesus to cleanse us who are temples of the Holy Spirit.

Entrance Antiphon My eyes are always on the Lord, for he rescues my feet from the snare. Turn to me and have mercy on me, for I am alone and poor.

First Reading Exodus 20:1-17

Psalm Psalm 18:8-11 response John 6:68

Response: You, Lord, have the message of eternal life.

- 1 The law of the Lord is perfect, it revives the soul.
The rule of the Lord is to be trusted, it gives wisdom to the simple.
- 2 The precepts of the Lord are right, they gladden the heart.
The command of the Lord is clear, it gives light to the eyes.
- 3 The fear of the Lord is holy, abiding for ever.
The decrees of the Lord are truth and all of them just.
- 4 They are more to be desired than gold, than the purest of gold and sweeter are they than honey, than honey from the comb.

Second Reading 1 Corinthians 1:22-25

Gospel Acclamation Praise to you, O Christ, king of eternal glory! I am the resurrection and the life, says the Lord, whoever believes in me will never die. Praise to you, O Christ, king of eternal glory!

Gospel John 2:13-25
